

Start Listening >>>>

Whether you play an instrument or not, are you curious to find out more about the amazing chamber music repertoire?

Thanks to the CAVATINA Ticket Scheme, if you are 8-25 years old, you now have the opportunity to listen to chamber music played by really great musicians in many parts of the country and all for free.

Chamber music is played in a room or 'chambre' (French), 'kammer' (German) or 'camera' (Italian), in homes and in smaller concert halls. Each musician plays a different part. Professional and amateur ensembles, young and old, derive much enjoyment from playing in small groups for their own and other people's pleasure.

Find out more on the following link:

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Chamber\_music#cite\_note-0

The following Pdf (Chamber Music List) mentions some of the greatest works of the chamber music repertoire. This is a very personal choice by CAVATINA. If you would like to add to this list with your own preferences, please do so.

On the 'Media' page, you can listen to Beethoven's 'Cavatina', a movement from his String Quartet Opus 130; 'Cavatina and Moravian Dance' by Roxanna Panufnik; and 'Cavatina at Midnight' by Cecilia McDowell.

Why not write a review about these pieces?

www.Bachtrack.com has a review page for teens and others and is indispensable for finding concerts.